Regulated information – Early closing of public retail bond offering
Under embargo until Friday 20 November 2015 om 5.45 pm CET

Issuance retail bond is a success.

- Maximum amount of € 100,000,000 after one day substantially oversubscribed
- Public offering will be closed early today.

Deceuninck NV announces today that the issuance of its retail bond is a major success. The subscription period has been closed early today. Deceuninck informed on 17 November about the possibility to subscribe to a retail bond with a seven year duration and a gross coupon of 3.75% for a minimum amount of € 40,000,000 and a maximum amount of € 100,000,000. On 20 November, the first day of the subscription, the maximum amount of € 100,000,000 has been reached. In consultation with the Global Coordinator (KBC) and the Joint Lead Managers (KBC and ING) it has been decided to close the subscription period early on Friday 20 November at 5.30 pm CET.

Since the demand exceeded the offering widely 1,5 times, investors will possibly not receive the full amount to which they subscribed. They will receive more information on this through their financial intermediary.

The obligation was issued with a coupon of 3.75%, which means a net return of 2.517% for the Belgian investor. The net result includes an allowance for the deduction of the Belgian withholding tax at a rate of 25%. If the government confirms its intention to increase the withholding tax rate to 27%, then the bond will show a net return of 2.444%.

The net result of this issuance will be used for working capital requirements, capital expenditure, general business objectives of the of Issuer including, but not restricted to, further organic growth and growth by means of takeovers and the repayment of and further reduction of the credit agreement as described in the issue prospectus.

An application was submitted for listing and trading of the bonds on Euronext Brussels.

Tom Debusschere, CEO

“We are delighted with the major interest and confidence of investors in Deceuninck. After just one day the amount was subscribed at 175%. We are grateful to the investors.

Our entire staff will continue to innovate, launch growth projects and improve efficiency to allow for further profit growth.

I would like to thank all parties involved – the Deceuninck staff and the Board as well as the external partners who cooperated and turned this operation into a success.”
