PRESS RELEASE

Deceuninck celebrates 40 years on the stock exchange and rings the opening bell on June 12th

Hooglede-Gits, June 12th, 2025 — Deceuninck marked its 40th anniversary as a listed company by opening the trading day on Euronext Brussels on June 12th, 2025. This symbolic event highlights Deceuninck's long-standing commitment to the stock exchange and marks a significant milestone in the company's rich history.

Since its initial public offering in 1985, Deceuninck has undergone a remarkable journey of international expansion, continuous innovation, and a strong focus on sustainability. While the path has not always been without challenges, the listing has played a crucial role in the company's professionalization and strategic development.

"Access to the stock market has enabled Deceuninck to invest in sustainable growth, innovation, and international expansion," said CEO Stefaan Haspeslagh. "It has also driven us to continuously improve our processes and reinforce our long-term vision."

Today, Deceuninck operates in over 90 countries, with a strong presence in Europe, North America, Turkey and emerging markets worldwide. The group employs more than 3,600 people and remains committed to circular materials, energy efficiency, and forward-looking building solutions.

The bell-ringing ceremony on June 12th was a proud moment for all employees, shareholders, and partners who have contributed to Deceuninck's success over the past four decades.
